

I support the added protections of the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law as it currently stands. Weakening this law would be a disservice to New Jersey consumers.